The canary app allows you to track you teenagers’ phones activity while they are driving. If they are using their phone while driving you will be notified. The app requires a subscription costing $7.95/month.

OneTap will prohibit your teenagers from texting while they’re driving, it also manages their texts and calls while on the road and automatically responds letting people know they are driving. Only available on android.

Lifesaver will turn off all phone features aside from emergency calls while your teenager is driving. Once the car is stopped the phone will be unlocked and can be used again.

11 teenagers die every day as a direct result of texting while driving

94% of teenagers are aware of the dangers of texting and driving yet 35% still admit to continued use

21% of teenagers involved in a fatal crash were distracted by their cellphone