Old Vermont Films: Opportunities for Research, New Films & Community Events

Fred Pond, MLS
University of Vermont & Vermont Historical Society
Vermont Historical Society

• Leahy Library
  – Books, Archives, Genealogy
  – Moving Image Collection
    • Deaccessioned Dept of Libraries films
    • Donated home movies – including Coolidge
    • Vermont Development Films of 1950s, 1960s
    • 16mm or 8mm film
    • Various video formats, most formats not readable with society equipment
Objective: Digitize Old Films

- ~150 16mm films in VHS vault
- At risk
- Not easily viewed, accessed
- Largely unknown, used or cataloged
The Plan:

• Specific titles selected
• Funding source identified
• Computer equipment
• Specs identified
• ‘Best Copy’ concern
• ‘Chain of Custody’ process
‘Best Copy’ Concern

- Most VHS films are ‘well loved.’
- Attempts to find best copy successful.
- Several stored Vermont State Archives & Records Administration (VSARA)
- Agreement with VSARA to use their copies.
- VSARA helped with transportation $$; received digital copies.
Promotion

• Vermont Filmmaker Network announcement

• Meetings with UVM Special Collections, Vermont Archives & Records Administration

• Select films uploaded on Internet Archive
  – www.archive.org/details/movies

• Vermont Historical Society web page
  – www.vermonthistory.org/film
Challenges

• Film file size
  – 30 minute film = 250GBs uncompressed
• Storage space
• File Backup Plan
• Equipment Failures
Gratitude

• Only one film affected by vinegar syndrome.

• Cooperative filmmakers, archivists, donors.

• Enthusiastic viewers!
Outcome: New Films

• Headline Vermont (2010)
  – View on www.vpt.org

• The Vermont Movie: Freedom & Unity (in production)
  – View trailer on http://thevermontmovie.com/

• Tunbridge at 250 (in production)
  – Vt State Guard at fairgrounds.
Outcome: Community Events

- Vermont State Guard in World War II
  - Special screening to VSG members, fund raiser, Montpelier, June 2009.
  - Waterbury Historical Society, October 2010.
  - Air National Guard, February 2011.
  - Middlebury Veterans Foreign Wars, March 2011.
BACK TO THE LAND, AGAIN—on film!
Come see three historic films on Vermont’s farming heritage!

- June 26 • 7:00-8:30 pm
- Tunbridge Public Library
- Large screen • Air-conditioned

Windy Wood Orchard
1935-1954, B&W, silent, Barre
In this history of a small family apple orchard, scenes depict planting, pruning, and harvesting over a span of years.

Morel Farm
1950s-1970s, B&W, silent, Northfield
Selected shots of active “gentlemen farmers” Norman and Eleanor Applegot, new arrivals to Vermont. Bonus feature shows Interstate 89 being plowed through nearby.

Thanks to Vermont
1951, color, sound
Vermont farm scenes
This state film features the marketing of a strong and scientific farm industry; includes many farm scenes, a state fair, concluding with a Thanksgiving table of bounty.

Supported by John M. Bissell Foundation

Vermont History Expo 2010
History’s Country Fair
Outcome: Research

Future Steps

• Advocate for film digitization
• Encourage oral histories
• Organize uncataloged Vermont film resources
• Foster use of Vermont film through academic & professional filmmakers